

McDonough Museum of Art

YSU's Center for Contemporary Ideas, Art, Education + Community

Suggested Naming Opportunities

Main Installation Gallery (Lower Level)

$500,000

- The McDonough's primary gallery
- Two stories high
- Largest space in the Museum
- Most adaptable/multi-functional space in the Museum
- Dramatic entrance featuring prominent access from the Grand Staircase
- Overview from balcony

Gallery A (Mid-level)

$350,000

- Prominent access from the McDonough's Campus Commons entrance, which opens onto Gallery A
- Prominent access from the McDonough's Wick Avenue entrance
- Bright space due to Gallery A's proximity to the open ceiling of the Main Installation Gallery and the natural light exposure from Campus Commons Entrance
- Adjacency to the Balcony

Gallery B (Mid-level)

$250,000

- Elegant, bright gallery
- Desirable proximity to the descending Spiral Staircase and Oculus Skylight
- Adjacency to the Balcony

Auditorium (Upper Level)

$500,000

- Seats 50 in tiered theater-style seating
- Offers large-screen technology for audio-visual display
- Multi-purpose resource utilized for classroom instruction, visiting lecturers, art exhibitions and film entertainment
- Accessible from the McDonough's two primary entrances – Campus Commons and Wick Avenue

Raw Space Gallery (Lower Level)

$150,000

- Dramatic entrance featuring prominent access from the Grand Staircase
- Captures visitors from the Main Installation Gallery
- Designed for dynamic exhibitions; contemplative and slightly darker space is suitable for multi-media projects

The Grand Staircase (Mid and Lower Levels) $100,000

- Prominent access from the McDonough's Campus Commons entrance
- Wide staircase that leads the visitor to the Main Installation and Raw Space Galleries
- Features dramatic overlook of Main Installation Gallery
- Prominent visibility from Campus Commons entrance, Main Installation Gallery, Gallery B and Balcony

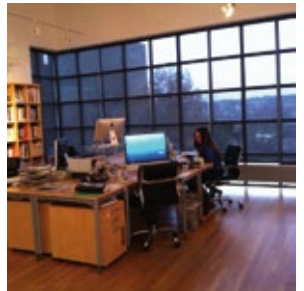

The McDonough Campus Commons (Mid-Level/Outdoors) $100,000

- Picturesque gateway to the McDonough Museum from the Smoky Hollow side
- Features patio and landscaped spaces leading to the architecturally dramatic Museum entrance
- Offers a unique, contained environment that includes access to Bliss Hall, home of the College of Creative Arts and Communication

The Open Office Suite and Conference Room (Upper Level) $250,000

- Direct access from Wick Avenue entrance
- Home to the hard-working museum staff
- Adjacent to the Office Suite

The Sculpture Patio (Street-Level/Outdoors) $75,000

- Outdoor Sculpture Patio to the right of McDonough Avenue street entrance
- High visibility on Wick Avenue
- Multiple-use space for exhibitions, receptions and Museum promotions
- Easy, open access to all viewers and guests

The Spiral Staircase (Lower and Mid Levels) $50,000

- Spiral staircase ascending from the Raw Space Gallery on Lower Level to Gallery B on Mid-Level
- Includes an oculus skylight at the top of the stairs
- Prominent architectural feature of the Museum
- Signature design of Gwathmey and Siegel

For information contact the YSU Foundation at ysuf@ysufoundation.org or 330.941.3211